Subject: Payment of an allowance to the Junior Sanitary Inspector of Malur Town Mxxu for attending to vaccination work

Sir,

I have the honour to state that there is no whole time vaccinator in Malur town municipality to attend to the vaccination work and this work has been entrusted to the Junior Sanitary Inspector, in addition to his own duties The President reports that on an average the official attends to 25 vaccinations per month. The Municipal council at their meeting held on 29-2-1948 considering the question of paying an allowance to the Junior Sanitary Inspector for his extra work, have resolved that an allowance of Rs. 5/- may be sanctioned with effect from 1st February 1948 Provision for meeting this extra expenditure has not been made in the current year's budget and the President reports that this expenditure may be met by reappropriation from the savings under Rs. 50/- set apart for the purchase of dust bins in the budget. Vaccination allowance to the Sanitary Inspectors of Mulbagal, Chickballapur and Bowringpet is being paid now for their extra work. I request that sanction of Government may kindly be obtained to the resolution of the Municipal council provision for this extra expenditure will be made in the budget estimates in future.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Deputy Commissioner,
Kolar District.
